

NAME:

Points: /

Directions: -each student will research the parenting magazines in class looking for articles focusing on infant care and development
 -locate articles on the following subjects: for other choose any other infant article (write the title of the article and the title and date of the magazine on the blank)

*feeding _____

*behavior/discipline _____ *sleep _____

*health and wellness _____ *toys/play _____

*safety _____

*other _____

-once you locate the articles you will be putting together an advice booklet for a parent of an infant, using the following guidelines:

*use your own creativity to make your booklet *construction paper, glue, and computers will be available *include a title page

*include a caption under each article to give credit to where you found it *include at least 2 pictures *beside each article, write a brief summary of the article and describe why you feel the information is important and what the parent can learn from the article