

Name:

Directions: The following will be covered on your semester test. Use old quizzes, worksheets, etc. to find information on each topic for you to study for the semester test.

Sewing

- You must be able to label the parts of the sewing machine on a diagram.
- You will be expected to name and describe the use for some of the common sewing tools.
- You will be expected to name the 2 hand stitches we learned.
- You will be expected to know how to wind a bobbin, thread a machine, and complete a seam.

Cooking

- You will be expected to name and describe the uses of common kitchen utensils.
- You will be expected to know kitchen and food safety basics.
- You will be expected to be able to list the 6 nutrient categories, why we need them and where what foods we find them in.

Child Development

- You must be able to define the 4 types of development and list examples of each during the 3 age groups we covered in class and list examples of each.
- You must be able to list safety precautions for the 3 age groups.

Personal Management

- You will be expected to write a check correctly and keep records in a registry.
- You must be able to define fixed and variable expenses.

Home Management

- You need to be able to define home and describe how home meets the 3 need areas discussed in class, be prepared to give examples.
- You must know the pros and cons of renting vs. owning.