Purpose: We have used a number of different surveys and activities in class to help you discover who you are, which will help you plan for who you hope to become. Many people find music to be a powerful medium for self-expression. In this assignment you will be using music, specifically song lyrics, to help describe who you are right now at this point in your life.

DUE: Thursday, January 30th. We will share out and listen to some songs on Friday! (sharing is optional and will not affect your grade)

Question: Looking at the lyrics of songs, which song most accurately describes you as a person and where you are in life right now?

Directions: (10 points)

-Choose a song, you may have a song in mind, but look through the lyrics (words) of many songs to make sure you aren't limiting yourself! (5 points)

-Choose a song with appropriate meaning and language; if you hand in a song that is inappropriate in any way you will automatically receive a zero. If you aren't sure, take the time to ask.

-Hand in a copy of the lyrics with this worksheet. They may be printed, hand-written, copied, as long as it's legible. (5 points)

-You must answer the questions on the back of this page to explain why this song describes you at this time in your life. (26 points)

Questions: (26 points)

1. What is the name of the song and who is the artist/band that performs it?
2. What is the overall meaning of the song and its lyrics to you?
3. Why do you feel this song describes you and where you are in life?
4. What 1 or 2 lines of the song really speak to you and WHY?
5. Did the interest and value surveys and activities we completed in class change your perspective of yourself in any way? Why or why not?
6. What is one thing you learned about yourself from the activities and/or from completing this assignment?
7. Finish the song; write an additional verse to help make this song more personally about you. (need at least 4 lines and needs to be appropriate)

*DON'T FORGET TO HAND IN A COPY OF THE SONG L YRICS!
