

Group Members:

Points: /90

Purpose: Students will become familiar with noted Child Development Theorists and the basics of their theories.

Theorist: _____

- Directions:
- students will be divided into small groups and given a theorist to study
  - each group will research their theorist using the internet, the text book, and other available resource
  - each group will prepare a PowerPoint over their theorist
  - the following are the minimum requirements for the PowerPoint
  - (6 pts)-title slide with group members names, theorist's name, and class
  - (16 pts)-minimum of 8 slides
  - (5 pts) -first and last name, year born and died, where resided
  - (4 pt) –profession and education achieved (where and level of)
  - (8 pts)-at least 4 pictures, one must be of the theorist, the other could be research taking place or a theory in practice
  - (5 pts)-type of development researched
  - (25 pts)-basic description of the theory with examples
  - all group members must participate, participation is worth 10 points
  - all groups will present their slideshow to the class, 6 points
  - all group members must participate in the research, compiling of information, and presentation of the PowerPoint*
  - (5 pts)-last slide must be a works cited slide, list all sources for information and pictures, including all websites and books used*